

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air a onesided
political documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is the FCC's responsibility
to guard the this important asset on behalf of the public.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. The license renewal
process needs to involve real
scrutiny of the corporations and their ethics. Thank you.
